SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. Between 15 and 18 June 1950 the Communists moved 12,000 troops into the Chungshan (113-36, 22-22) area to prepare for an invasion of Outer Lintin and Wanshan Islands. Communist troops in the area include the following:
  - a. Three thousand on Lasami (113-50, 22-08), with three long-range guns.
  - b. Three thousand on Laowanshan (113-58, 22-15 ?), with four long-range guns.
  - c. Two thousand on Chiao (113-39, 22-24).
  - d. Two thousand on Santsao (113-22, 22-01), with an unknown number of long-range guns.
2. Overall headquarters are under TSENG Sheng on Hengchin (113-30, 22-05). The forward command post* was moved to Laowanshan under WANG Tso-yao (王作堯) **, with LIU Hsiang-tung (劉向東) as deputy commander.
3. The Communists are postponing the invasion because of a lack of sufficient vessels to transport troops. TSENG's request for vessels from Canton* was approved, and requisitions are in progress. Vessels already available are: defected Nationalist gunboat LUAN FENG (綸鳳); CHUNG HUA (中華) Numbers 1 and 2; CHUNG HSING (中興) Number 1; 2 landing craft anchored at Hengchin; 200 motor rafts; and 100 sailing junks dispersed at Santsao and Chung Hsin Ts'un (忠欣村), near Lasami.
4. The invasion is scheduled for the end of June during a low tide at night.
